What were the circumstances that caused you to initially look for a financial adviser?

Raise funds until retirement and home improvements.

How has Meral helped you?

Initially met Meral face to face at her office then at our home. Having listened to our circumstances Meral found us a good deal suited to our needs. Meral is friendly, professional and the whole process ran smoothly with excellent communications throughout. Could not have done it without her.

Have you seen the outcome you were hoping for?

Yes, most definitely.

What could they have done better?

Nothing, would recommend Meral without hesitation.

What were the circumstances that caused you to initially look for a financial adviser?

Previously let down and given poor advice, i looked for someone more local who offered a face to face consultation. After the passing of information Meral kindly offered to meet me within the confines of my won home or in her office.Meral offered invaluable and impartial advice and support. Meral was able to point out areas of my life that I had not considered problematic but with her support and direction she was able to identify a significant area of my vulnerability at a time when life seemed to be overtaking me.

How has Meral helped you?

Whilst Meral was not able to help me to obtain what i had initially requested, she was very professional in identifying key areas of my life and my financial short comings. Meral identified that i was at present going through a sustained period of vulnerability having recently lost my wife to a traumatic disease and and she even discussed issues that I had not considered short comings previously. Her professionalism throughout the whole process was both kind and gentle and once i have addressed these issues to which i believed initially did not exist i will certainly return to her in the future once they have been resolved.

Have you seen the outcome you were hoping for?

Unfortunately, not the outcome i was hoping for, but at least Meral was kind enough and considerate enough to point me in the direction for support which i will be taking, having already taking the first step by listening to Meral and taking on board everything that he said would be preferable to address. I thank her for her honesty and integrity during this whole process.

What could they have done better?

I do not think Meral could have done any more than what she already has and i thank her for her support and professionalism

How has Meral helped you?

After searching the internet for somebody suitable to help my 81 year old mother with her equity release I came across Meral, after an initial chat on the phone I just knew that my mother would be in safe hands with this kind, understanding patient lady who really knows her stuff when it comes to equity release. My mother sent me a handwritten note through the post and asked if I could place it with the reviews as she doesnt know how to do them. From my first meeting with Meral Kendrick I sensed that she would be working in my interest. I would really recommend her as she dealt with my equity release with efficiency and care. Wendy Stalford. Meral really did go above and beyond our expectations and we cannot thank her enough.

If your looking for a Financial Advisor that you can trust to do exactly what they say they will then look no further than Meral. From the outset Meral was approachable,non judge mental ,understanding and easily contactable day, night and even weekends .My particular financial assistance request was quite unusual and my previous attempts to seek appropriate guidance had proven to be unsuccessful or in fact downright questionable . Meral however found a solution which is currently in progress and has continued to offer guidance and advice throughout. Meral has a genuine passion to help people with their financial affairs and i have no hesitation in endorsing a recommendation to give her a call if you need financial advice .

She assisted us to find a mortgage broker who would provide a mortgage for a 65yr old. She also assisted me to get life insurance.

Have you seen the outcome you were hoping for?

Yes. Both objectives were achieved with a lot of hard work, by Meral.

What could they have done better?

I am struggling to think of anything Meral could have done better. She communicated clearly & regularly and when things didn't go well she offered options and advice.

What were the circumstances that caused you to initially look for a financial adviser?

My husband and I were first time buyers.

How has Meral helped you?

Meral was so helpful from the very first phone call we had with her, we didnt have a clue and due to my husbands self employment and part contracted work our circumstances were not that straightforward but Meral was so knowledgeable on everything we needed for our position.

Have you seen the outcome you were hoping for?

Yes we are now living in our first home and very happy.

What could they have done better?

N/A

What were the circumstances that caused you to initially look for a financial adviser?

My husband and I had sold a property in Ireland, and were in the process of selling our home in Lincoln to buy a home in Herts. We were both retired, didnt want to pay high rental costs but were anxious about getting a mortgage at our age.

How has Meral helped you?

Meral eloped us to decide what was best for us. She trawled the market of lenders till she found the best product for us. She also helped us through the process, using technology that we werent familiar with.

Have you seen the outcome you were hoping for?

Yes, absolutely. We are very happy with the outcome.I would go back in 5 years to look at getting an update

What could they have done better?

Well it was all taking place during the lockdown so it felt like it took ages! (9 months). But nobody could help that!

What were the circumstances that caused you to initially look for a financial adviser?

Required a new low interest fixed rate mortgage after my previous one reached term.

How has Meral helped you?

Meral was diligent and made the process as painless as possible. More recently mortgage lenders require much more detail and evidence especially if you are self employed or a company director.

Have you seen the outcome you were hoping for?

Meral secured a new low interest mortgage that fitted my requirements
